Offer flexible options

Creating flexible and responsive environments allows students to make choices about:

- tools and resources they might use (digital and non-digital)
- methods to share their ideas and understanding
- subject content
- how they physically access an environment
- order of learning tasks
- when to sit assessments
- who they might access for help
- the process to finish or complete a task
- who they might work and collaborate with.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.