Develop shared expectations

Define together with students and whānau the building blocks of an inclusive culture.

Ask, what would we expect to see, feel, have access to?

- ✔ Develop comprehensive, safe-school policies that include the voice of whānau who identify as LGBTIQA+.
- ✔ Engage in a collaborative process with students, parents, and whānau to develop school policies and systems.
- ✔ Consult with parents and whānau in ways appropriate to each school community, such as surveys, hui, fono, or parent meetings.
- ✔ Have clear processes in place to ensure families receive assistance should issues of harassment or bullying occur.
- ✔ Create safe spaces and access to an informed, knowledgeable, and supportive person.
- ✔ Provide easy access to relevant materials, resources, and support services.
- ✔ Provide whānau with reassurances of confidentiality and respect for their privacy.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.