Welcome pack and web page examples

Examples of welcome packs and school website pages.

View these examples of schools using the internet to engage with parents.

- Orewa College parent portal
- Albany Senior High School Facebook page
- Papatoetoe High School website

While it is useful to have information on your school's website, it is helpful to have this available in hardcopy as well.

When creating or updating your welcome pack, consider:

- using inclusive language
- outlining the support for students with additional needs
- describing how you engage with parents in an ongoing way, for example, through face-to-face meetings, newsletters, email, Facebook and so on.
