

Food Act

Do you need a food control plan?

The 2014 Food Act applies to schools and kura that sell or provide food as part of their paid holiday programmes.

A food control plan sets out the steps you will take to make food safe, identify risks, and show how they're being managed.

Find out what your:

- school needs to do to comply with the law
- early childhood centre needs to do to comply with the law.
