

Find approaches that work at school and at home

Share approaches that are successful at home or at school to build continuity, strengthen engagement and facilitate learning.

Approaches or items that could be shared or aligned across home and school include:

- home routines that support ākonga.
- home supports for day-to-day life
- student interests, such as favourite topics, colours, sports and music
- phrases, visual cues, signs and other communication techniques
- visuals that support understanding
- strategies and solutions for specific issues
- objects and items that are meaningful and offer support
- calming strategies, for example, objects, cushions, dark spaces and headphones
- eating and personal routines
- furniture and physical supports, for example, chairs and table heights.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
