

Have the right people at the table

Determine who will be part of the learning support community to work in partnership with teachers, ākonga and their whānau.

This infographic decision pathway may help: Who's at your table – Tātai Aho Rau (PDF, 118KB)

Possible collaborators could include:

- Leadership representatives or deans
- Trusted community support people
- Colleagues who have expertise or trusting relationships with ākonga and whānau
- Teacher aides
- Learning support coordinators or facilitators
- Resource Teachers: Learning and Behaviour
- Iwi services
- Disability support groups
- Community, local religious or youth leaders
- Ministry of Education specialists, such as speech-language therapist or educational psychologist
- Local medical, child and adolescent mental health services
- Local social work services

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
