

Useful resources

Ka Hikitia – Ka Hāpaitia

Ka Hikitia is a Ministry of Education and cross-agency strategy for the education sector. It sets out the work to achieve system shifts in education and support Māori learners and their whānau, hapū and iwi to achieve excellent and equitable outcomes.

Visit website

Unpacking biases

This inclusive education workshop is designed to stimulate thinking and discussion about how our assumptions impact the way we teach and how our ākonga learn. It helps participants to engage in critical reflection to surface and identify implicit biases.

Visit website

Broadening teachers' perspectives

Read time: 2 min

In this video, Paul Enright talks about how their school has broadened teacher perspectives as they engage with tangata whenua and value Māori history.

Visit website

Te Kōtahitanga – Changing Māori educational experiences

Video about Te Kōtahitanga – improving cultural iconography in classrooms, incorporating pedagogy that is responsive to the culture of students and providing contexts for learning based on students' prior knowledge and experiences.

Visit website

Cultural capability resources

A set of visual tools to support your cultural capability journey.

Publisher: Tātai Aho Rau Core Education

Visit website

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
