

Self-assessment

Are these strategies emerging, partly in place, or established in your practice?

Illustrate your response with examples from your own teaching.

- ✓ There are scaffolds and tools available to support self-regulated behaviour.
- ✓ I acknowledge students when they demonstrate self-regulation (for example, waiting their turn, sharing with others, using a strategy to calm down).
- ✓ I explicitly teach and model self-management strategies.
- ✓ Students receive feedback for using the strategies.
- ✓ I regularly check in on students, giving supportive feedback that builds their view of themselves as active learners.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.

---

