

Use high probability instructions

A high probability instruction is one that ākonga are likely to follow. It aims to defuse a situation by giving the child or young person a way to feel more secure and time to regain control.

Examples:

- Let's go for a walk around the playground.
- Will you go and get the swimming key for me?

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
