Consider what will guide your collective purpose and how you will support shared understanding.

As a cluster of early learning services, schools, and kura, you will have adopted a model or approach that provides a collective focus for the support of tangata whenua and tangata titiriti learners.

Take time to unpack and illustrate with examples the model or approach that will guide your mahi in this team.

Take time to build understanding of approaches that underpin teaching practice within your cluster, such as:

- Universal Design for Learning
- PB4L
- National curriculum
- Shared elements of the local curriculum.
