What students want

Students ask not to be separated from peers and request that teachers:

- ✓ get to know them
- ✓ give them opportunities to talk about what school is like for them
- ✓ listen to their views
- ✓ take their views into consideration when they are planning and teaching, so they can learn
- ✓ support them to make school a better place for them
- ✓ allow them to be part of their peer group and to be fully involved.

Talk to students

Design for all learners by finding ways to:

- ✓ Include student voice in the design of the learning environment.
- ✓ Create flexible spaces that can be changed, rearranged based on student needs and preferences at the time.
- ✓ Ask students what would help in their learning.
