

Support self-advocacy

Encourage ākonga to identify learning needs and preferences and how to advocate for them across multiple contexts.

Create opportunities for ākonga to genuinely practice self-advocacy.

- ✓ How to identify when to work alone and when to collaborate.
- ✓ How and when to use text-to-speech and speech-to-text tools.
- ✓ How and when to use text-to-speech to read back text to support editing.
- ✓ How to select the best physical environment for a task or assessment to support attention, focus and achievement.
- ✓ How and when to request and use headphones.
- ✓ Knowing what supports editing in an assessment: Reading aloud written examination responses and correct as they read or hearing what they wrote, and determining whether it is what they intended.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
