

Learn about diversity together

Create opportunities to discuss and build shared understandings about diversity and valuing all learners.

- ✓ Be open to learning from and with parents, whānau and your local community.
- ✓ Create multiple opportunities for your community to ask questions about inclusion and what it would mean for their own child.
- ✓ Invite your community to see activities that explicitly model inclusion at your school, or at another school.
- ✓ Offer presentations or workshops to parents and whānau about the value of including all learners.
- ✓ Create opportunities for students and their whānau to share what valuing diversity means to them.
- ✓ Be ready to articulate your vision for inclusion language your community can relate to.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.

