

Communication approaches

Use a range of communication options.

- ✓ Welcome parents, whānau, and teachers to regular shared breakfasts in the staffroom to discuss ideas, concerns and updates.
- ✓ Have an open-door policy, where parents and whānau are welcome to visit classes at any time and sit in on the learning.
- ✓ Plan and advertise specific open-classroom days when parents and whānau are welcome to chat to students about their thoughts and experiences of working in an ILE.
- ✓ Include regular updates and information explaining the changes in your newsletters.
- ✓ Develop a FAQ webpage, where all the questions people have asked are collated and responses to each one are added.
- ✓ Plan multiple parent evening meetings.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.

---

