

Build respectful and reciprocal relationships

He Pikorua, the learning support practice framework, begins with whakawhanaungatanga – build connections.

Trusting relationships between kaiako, whānau and ākonga provide opportunities to explore what is important and have difficult conversations when necessary.

Build connections by:

- exploring aspirations and goals
- empowering others
- gaining informed consent
- information sharing
- negotiating roles and expectations
- building staff capability.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
