

Explore supported living and community options

Supported living and community residential support services assist disabled people to live independently in a safe and appropriate environment.

Eligibility and allocation of supported living and community residential support are based on a needs assessment. Supported living provides people with support for individual tasks, usually when they are in their own home.

Community residential support services enable people to live in a home-like setting in their community while receiving support for up to 24 hours a day.

For more information see:

Needs assessment services – Whaikaha Ministry of Disabled People

Housing and living options – Whaikaha Ministry of Disabled People

Logan's journey to new happiness – NZ Down Syndrome Association

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
