

How parents can help

Parents and caregivers are the single biggest influence on a young person's career decisions.

Encourage parents and caregivers to:

- ✓ build dreams with their child
- ✓ have career and future-orientated conversations early on
- ✓ discuss and explore career options
- ✓ support their young people to develop a CV
- ✓ support work experiences within the types of jobs that interest their teenager
- ✓ support their teenager with learning life and work skills at home.
