

Identify voice difficulties

A student's voice may be affected by difficulties with pitch, loudness or quality. Seek specialist support for the range of voice difficulties through Ministry of Education speech-language therapists.

Children may benefit from support where the family, whānau or educators are concerned that the child has a problem with their voice that makes it hard for them to talk, for example, they might have an extremely husky voice or keep losing their voice.

Source:

Supporting students with speech, language and communication needs – Ministry of Education
<https://www.education.govt.nz/school/student-support/special-education/supporting-students-with-speech-language-and-communication-needs/>

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
