

Utilising bilingual skills of TAs

Bilingual classroom assistants are uniquely placed to make links for children who share a cultural heritage similar to their own.

[They] are able to build on the form of knowledge and the cultural capital that children bring from home in ways in which few monolingual class teachers are able to do.

Martin-Jones M. & Saxena M. (2003)

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
