

Focus areas years 11-13

Ensure programmes affirm sexual, sexuality, and gender diversity and identify and respect the diverse values and beliefs of students and the community.

Students in years 11-13 will learn to:

- critically analyse a wide range of issues relating to gender, sexuality, and sexual health
- explore social pressure, social norms, gender identity and cultural issues relating to sexual health
- evaluate community agencies
- evaluate policies on sexuality and sexual health
- critically analyse issues of safety and risk
- research positive sexual health practices
- affirm diversity, human rights, and sexuality across the school
- advocate for access to support and health care.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
