

Develop supportive advocates

The presence of adults who are supportive of LGBT students is associated with increased feelings of safety at school.

Supportive adults:

- affirm students
- intervene, particularly when bullying occurs
- provide support
- advocate for school-wide policies and practices.

LGBT students:

- develop greater self-esteem
- are less likely to miss school
- achieve greater educational outcomes.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
