

Review home-school partnerships

Use these questions to review how effective your home-school connection is.

- What do you know about the language, culture and identify of your Pacific learners and their families?
- What do you know about the presence, engagement, progress and achievement of your Pacific learners and do you share this information with families?
- How do you involve Pacific families in planning, monitoring progress and achievement.
- How do you review your practices and challenge your own assumptions about partnerships with Pacific learners and their families?
