Culture and the classroom

O tu, aganu'u, ma agaifanua a le tamaititi o le a le mafai ona ulufale atu I le potuaoga sei vagana ua fa'atauaina ma faaulufaleina muamua I le loto ma le agaga o le faiaoga.

The culture of the child cannot enter the classroom until it has first entered the consciousness of the teacher.

Characteristics of a good teacher

According to Pacific learners (and Pacific parents), a "good teacher":

- ✓ understands that my identity, language and culture is important to me
- ✓ pronounces my name and words in my language properly
- ✓ recognises that English might not be my and/ or my parents' first language and communicates with us in a way that we can understand
- ✓ makes an effort to learn and use simple words like saying 'hello' and 'thank you' in my language
- ✓ does research to know more about me, my family and my culture and island nation(s) that we come from
- ✓ understands the values that are important to me such as faith, spirituality (church) and family

Useful resources

Language enhancing the achievement of Pasifika

The LEAP resource aims to bring together all the factors that can support bilingual Pasifika students' learning. It suggests ways in which teachers can explore, in practical ways, language teaching and learning principles that can help them work more effectively with bilingual Pasifika students.
