

Support learning conversations

Communicate and share information in a meaningful way, demonstrating understanding and support for parents' concerns.

- ✓ Promote regular face-to-face contact to reinforce strong communication and engagement with parents and families right from the start.
- ✓ Communicate and share information in a meaningful way, demonstrating understanding and support for parents' concerns.
- ✓ Value what parents and caregivers have noticed or assessments they have had done outside school.
- ✓ Involve parents and family in determining strategies to support the student's learning and wellbeing.
- ✓ Work with any programmes or materials being used at home to maximise consistency and support for the student.
- ✓ Develop systems for passing on information about a student's needs, progress, and next steps in ways that are meaningful.
- ✓ Actively and regularly communicate positive information and achievements to the family.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
