

Reflective questions

Embracing the identity, culture, and language of diverse learners strongly motivates them to strive for success.

Consider your responses to these questions.

What actions do they inspire?

What excites you about learning about the diverse Pacific cultures?

How are you fostering culture and identity in your teaching and lessons?

What techniques will you use to embrace the culture and identity of students from different backgrounds?

How can you create a culturally responsive classroom where your learners can uphold their cultural identity?

How are you promoting the home languages of your learners inside the classroom and outside their home community and families?

How can you build up a classroom of diverse learners so that they can do their best?
