

Useful resources

What is SEL?

The Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning (CASEL) is the world's leading organisation advancing the practice of promoting integrated academic, social, and emotional learning (SEL) for all children from preschool to high school. Their website provides information about SEL competencies, whole school approaches for introducing and teaching SEL, and resources.

Publisher: Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional

Visit website

Big ideas | Social and emotional learning

A series of videos and student activities to support social and emotional learning for primary school students. Growth mindset, perseverance, empathy, and gratitude are the topics covered. These are part of ClassDojo. They can be accessed without having a ClassDojo account.

Publisher: Class Twist

Visit website

Teaching the whole child: Instructional practices that support social-emotional learning in three teacher evaluation frameworks

Read time: 76 min

This research-to-practice publication, developed by the American Institute for Research, supports educators to identify teaching practices that promote student social-emotional learning. It showcases how three professional teaching frameworks embed practices that influence student academic learning and student social and emotional competencies.

Publisher: American Institutes for Research

Visit website

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.

