

Navigating new environments safely | Wāhi haumarū

Navigating a new environment can be overwhelming. Seek clarity and regularly check in with whānau about their sense of security for their child.

- ✓ Identify and address whānau concerns about safety in the new environment well in advance.
- ✓ Provide whānau with information and solutions for safely navigating the new school. This includes pick-ups and drop-offs, start times, and important events.
- ✓ Provide information on class protocols for activities and outings.
- ✓ Ask for specific information about health needs, medication, and toileting requirements.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
