

Collaborate on a transition plan | Te mahere whakawhiti

- ✓ Work together with current kaiako – create a smooth, structured transition process, including visits, orientation activities, and support strategies.
- ✓ Be open to follow-up conversations – offer to stay in touch with previous staff for ongoing support as ākongā settle into their new environment.
- ✓ Learn about previous transitions – ask what previously helped ākongā successfully transition between activities, lessons, and environments.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
