

Promote whānau voice | Te reo o te whānau

Applying the principles of partnership means listening to whānau and their education journey. Identify what is needed to build safety and trust.

Whānau will come with many differing experiences of inclusion and exclusion in education for themselves and their child, which will make them eager to partner with settings or anxious and fearful about further rejection.

Frian Wadia MNZM (Parent/Early Intervention Specialist/Facilitator)

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.

