

Accessing local Ministry assistive technology co-ordinators

Contact your local Ministry office for support.

Assistive technology co-ordinators provide advice, guidance, and support at all stages of the application process. This includes access to:

- advice and guidance for learners with additional learning needs
- information on eligibility
- support and coaching on initiating the AT process and how to apply the SETT framework
- specialised equipment, which may not be available in schools to trial
- peer reviews of assistive technology applications (pre- and post-trial).
