

Text-to-speech

Text-to-speech (TTS) reads digital text aloud.

TTS removes barriers to decoding and understanding printed words.

Encourage the use of TTS across the curriculum, providing learners with opportunities to:

- listen and read along with unfamiliar texts
- access texts beyond their reading level
- listen to audio while doing another activity, such as exercising or travelling
- select sections of text and listen back for errors and fluency when editing their writing.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
