

Discuss principles

Education Review Office (ERO) describes the most inclusive schools as having three key principles.

1. Ethical standards and leadership that build the school culture.
2. Well organised systems, effective teamwork, and constructive relationships that identify and support the inclusion of all students.
3. Innovative and flexible practices that ensure environments and experiences are inclusively designed and meet the diverse learning needs of all students.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.

---

