Giving Effect to Te Tiriti o Waitangi

The Education and Training Act 2020 makes it a primary objective of school boards to give effect to Te Tiriti o Waitangi.

The NZSTA article Giving effect to Te Tiriti o Waitangi provides advice to board members on meeting this objective. It includes an overview of the Treaty articles to support boards with honourable governance that reflects New Zealand's dual cultural heritage.

New Zealand Disability Strategy

New Zealand schools are bound by the New Zealand Disability Strategy.

The vision of the strategy is “New Zealand is a non-disabling society – a place where disabled people have an equal opportunity to achieve their goals and aspirations, and all of New Zealand works together to make this happen.”

There are eight outcomes in the strategy. Outcome 1 is “We get an excellent education and achieve our potential throughout our lives.”

International obligations

The United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.

New Zealand schools are bound by the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, which New Zealand ratified in 2008. Article 24 relates to the education of people with disabilities.

Signatories to the convention are committed to ensure equal access to:

- primary and secondary education
- vocational training
- adult education
- lifelong learning.
