

Ideas for sharing information

Use these ideas for connecting, sharing information, and reaching a shared understanding.

- ✓ Discuss options for staying in touch that work for everyone. If parents are unable meet face-to-face make time to share stories from visits or meetings in ways that work for the family. This can be as easy as a phone call, an email or a text message.
- ✓ Ensure that team members know who to contact for specific needs.
- ✓ Allocate one team member to document and communicate plans and decisions.
- ✓ Identify and use digital technologies such as group texting, blogging, SKYPE or Google Hangouts, Facebook or NZ Relay, where appropriate, for meetings and sharing information.
- ✓ Focus on the student's goals and the steps to achieving these.
- ✓ Value everyone's insight and contribution.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
